Rome, 5 July 2021

From weekends by the sea or in the mountains, to trips out of town and city tours: from today, with Leasys, summer holidays can be taken with car sharing. The company, a Stellantis brand and a subsidiary of FCA Bank, is launching the new "Prenditela comoda" ("Take it easy") promotion by LeasysGO!, the car sharing service dedicated to the electric New 500. The exclusive offer, which runs from today until August 31, allows you to rent one of the iconic zero-emission city cars in the LeasysGO! fleet for just €29.99 per day, instead of the regular €43.50.

Taking up the offer is very simple: the promotional rate is activated automatically, during car sharing, when the amount of €29.99 is reached. Once the amount has been clocked up, it will be possible to continue driving the LeasysGO! electric 500 for 24 hours, as calculated from the time the rental starts, throughout Italy, with no additional costs, kilometre restrictions or extra km charges.

During the rental hours, drivers will be able to stop and take the keys with them to open or lock the vehicle, which in this way continues to be available to them at all times. The car can also be charged by using the charging cable in the luggage rack.

The offer is also valid for customers who use the same car for several days, with the applicable rate unchanged at €29.99 for every 24 hours. For customers with a prepaid subscription, the 24 hours will start when the minute credit runs out.

"Prenditela comoda" is a flexible and advantageous solution, designed for every need, from a meeting in the city to a weekend away. All in the name of electric mobility and respect for the environment.

Lastly, LeasysGO! also offers a sharing service to and from the airports of Turin Caselle, Milan Malpensa, Milan Linate and Rome Fiumicino. Customers will be able to pick up or drop off their cars at the Leasys Mobility Store car parks at the airport or those dedicated to car sharing without any extra charge for the service.
