Two awards for Leasys: the company, a Stellantis brand and a subsidiary of FCA Bank, was elected "Best Car Rental Company" at the Mission Fleet Awards 2021 gala, held last night in Milan. The jury also awarded Leasys the "Best Smart mobility service: car sharing and car pooling" prize for LeasysGO!, the electric car sharing service dedicated to the New 500

The event, organized by the publishing house Newsteca, is one of the most prestigious gatherings dedicated to the world of company fleets, a meeting point for the most important operators in the automotive sector and the best fleet managers. Innovation was the word of the 2021 edition and, despite the profound changes that marked this year, the search for and the implementation of the most forward-looking solutions were the distinctive features of the candidates.

The two awards received are further confirmation not only of Leasys's leadership role, but also of its ability to interpret and anticipate future developments in mobility, thanks to a flexible offering of "one minute to a lifetime" solutions, capable of meeting the most diverse user needs: from long-term to short- and medium-term rental, to car subscription, to car sharing.
